This heart-racing new documentary exposes the notoriously closed world of this ancient race and the larger-than-life personalities of those involved in an epic and cinematic tale of Italian life in microcosm. (Not rated, but if rated would be PG-13 for occasional adult language.)

In Rehearsal for a Sicilian Tragedy, actor John Turturro takes audiences on a haunting, intimate journey to his maternal homeland of Sicily. A SPECIAL DAY
(1977) 107 min., Loren, Mastroianni.
Italian cinema dream team Sophia Loren and Marcello Mastroianni are cast against glamorous type and deliver two of the finest performances of their careers in this moving, quietly subversive drama from Ettore Scola. Though it's set in Rome on the historic day in 1938 when Benito Mussolini and the city first rolled out the red carpet for Adolf Hitler, the film takes place entirely in a working-class apartment building, where an unexpected friendship blossoms between a pair of people who haven't joined the festivities: a conservative housewife and mother tending to her domestic duties and a liberal radio broadcaster awaiting deportation. (Not rated but if rated would be PG.) I245.........................2-DVD Set, $29.95

THE SALT OF LIFE

In The Salt of Life, Gianni plays a middle-aged retiree who has become invisible to all the women of Rome, regardless of age or relation. He contends with a demanding mother, a patronizing wife, a slack-er daughter, and a wild party-girl neighbor who uses him... as a dog walker. (Not rated, but if rated would be PG-13.) SLOW FOOD STORY
(2013) 74 min., Petrini.
In 1986 Carlo Petrini, dispirited by the rapid rise of global fast food chains and the homogenizing effects of corporate cuisine, launched Slow Food, an international anti-fast-food resistance movement to preserve traditional and regional cuisine and encourages farming of plants, seeds and livestock characteristic of the local ecosystem. A joyous romp of a film, filled with all manner of delectable scenes of food, drink and song, Slow Food amply demonstrates that adventure is best served in heaping helpings. (Not rated but if rated would be G.) I239.......................DVD, $29.95

TERRAFERMA
(2011) 94 min., Crialese, R.
