AMBARABA (BE)
A course of Italian for Elementary School students. The course has been experimented for years by the Pedagogical Institute of Bolzano and can be used both abroad with foreign children or in Italy with mono or multi language speaking classes. The methodological and didactic approach characterize Ambaraba as having: the richness and variety of language inputs that delineate a learning itinerary for the children who are continuously exposed to authentic language; the great attention given to oral skills and in particular listening comprehension skills - thanks to the countless audio materials and the original songs composed and performed by professional musicians; and the accent given to the interactive aspect of learning and to cooperative learning, with the systematic offer of production or comprehension activities to be performed in pairs of groups.

GRAMMATICA ITALIANA PER BAMBINI (BE) (REVISED EDITION)
A basic grammar for children, with exercises. It may be used abroad in classes of young learners and in classes with foreign pupils attending school in Italy, as well as in self-study sessions with the help of an adult (the text has answer keys). It's a valid tool for the first approach to grammar in a playful and fun way, along with the stories of the two young protagonists, Giulia and Francesco. The didactic approach is smooth and engaging; it stimulates curiosity by igniting the children's fantasy. Each unit presents a grammar topic in a clear and easy-to-understand way and offers a variety of fun exercises.
Softcover, 8"x11x1/2", 142 pages.

RACCONTAMI (BE)
Raccontami is an Italian language course for children offering a new and stimulating method for learning Italian. It is the first course of Italian language that is also directed to preschool children. Thanks to the "narrative method", focused on story telling and repetition of tales and stories, children are stimulated to speak and listen to Italian without ever being stressed, but on the contrary having fun and feeling fully integrated in the classroom. The teaching units are based on original and exciting stories, which stimulate the children's curiosity and imagination and which, through the pleasure of story telling, allow a fun and entertaining approach to the language. The course is divided into two levels: Raccontami 1, for 4 to 7 year olds; Raccontami 2, for 7 to 11 year olds.

Raccontami includes:
- a work book for homework;
- Free Audio Download.

BUON VIAGGIO IN ITALIA (B)
A year spent in Italy by foreign students provides the context for this beginner level text. The young people featured throughout the book attend an Italian high school and live with a typical family. Each chapter introduces new vocabulary through high interest readings and dialogs, and grammar concepts with clear, detailed explanation. Carefully designed exercises reinforce instruction and comprehension. Because Buon Viaggio in Italia was written specifically for American students, directions for all exercises are in English. Information about culture, customs, history and geography (in English and Italian) is integrated into each unit. The accompanying audio CD is coordinated to develop listening skills.
Softcover, 8-1/2"x11", 304 pages.

NUOVO MAGARI
Nuovo Magari is now split into 2 levels with student book and workbook combined. The text deals with the study of forms, syntax, and style that belong to Italian but are hardly ever dealt with in Italian course books. They offer a new approach to the study of more elementary materials and develops them in a stimulating way. The course is characterized by a strong cultural approach. The didactic units are divided into four thematic macro-areas (Society, Arts, Language, History), through which a rich profile of Italy is outlined in order to illustrate the most significant socio-cultural phenomena, ideas, tendencies, and the most recent trends in life style.

Each Book is Softcover, 8-1/2"x11".

AMARCORD
(1973) 123 min., Fellini, R. This carnivalesque portrait of provincial Italy during the fascist period, the most personal film by Federico Fellini, satirizes the director's youth and turns daily life into a circus of social rituals, adolescent desires, male fantasies, and political subterfuge, all set to Nino Rota's classic, nostalgia-tinged score. The Academy Award-winning Amarcord remains one of cinema's enduring treasures.

BEHIND THE WHITE GLASSES

Behind the White Glasses offers a deep dive into the groundbreaking life and career of Lina Wertmüller; the first woman ever nominated for the Academy Award for Best Director for her masterpiece Seven Beauties. The documentary spans decades, from the unpublished pictures taken in Cinecittà, when she was Federico Fellini’s assistant director on 8 1/2 to the places were her most famous films were set, revealing the artistic and human universe of a woman who, with her unflinching irony and taste for the grotesque, has left her mark in all the fields of entertainment in which she worked: cinema, drama, television, music. (Not rated, but if rated would be R for brief adult language, themes and nudity.) (Limited Quantities.)

LITTLE GIRL

(2010) 100 min.
In a run-down park on the outskirts of Rome, a two year-old girl is discovered and taken in by a family of hard-luck circus performers. A note in the child's pocket from a desperate mother reveals little about who she is or why she was left. As the bond grows between the girl and her surrogate family, this natural-istic drama becomes a revealing and soulful portrait of courage and discrimination, and of loss and togetherness.

MY ITALIAN SECRET-FORGOTTEN HEROES

(2014) 90 min., Rossellini.
My Italian Secret tells the story of cycling idol Gino Bartali, Dr. Giovanni Borromeo, and other courageous Italians who carried out ingenious schemes to rescue Jews, partisans, and refugees from Nazi-occupied Italy. These men, and the networks in which they worked, reflect the efforts of thousands of Italians who risked their lives to save others. As an entire continent was engulfed in genocide, more than 80 percent of Italy's Jews survived. In My Italian Secret, Oscar-nominated director Oren Jacoby reveals the dramatic stories of a secret underground that has remained largely unknown until now.
(In English & Italian with English subtitles.)

PALIO
(2014) 91 min.
The Palio is the oldest horse race in the world, and turns the city of Siena into a high-stakes battleground of strategy, intrigue, and simmering machismo. In the eye of the storm stand the jockeys - adored if they succeed, despised if they fail. This heart-racing new documentary exposes the notoriously closed world of this ancient race and the larger-than-life personalities of those involved in an epic and cinematic tale of Italian life in micro-cosm. (Not rated, but if rated would be PG-13 for occasional adult language.)

PASSIONE
We journey through Napoli, of the biggest of jukeboxes in the world, a treasure chest of songs, from 1200 to now, conjuring distant stories and myths that still live, a repertoire that speaks of love, sex, jealousy, crime, poverty, irony, superstition, and social protest. Each song is a small screenplay, an emotional postcard sent from a city by the forces driving it. PASSIONE is a musical adventure that comes directly out of the people, the walls that surround them, and the land they inhabit. (Not rated, but would be PG-13 if rated.) Narration in English with songs and interviews in Italian with English subtitles.

SLOW FOOD STORY
(2013) 74 min., Petrini.
In 1986 Carlo Petrini, dispirited by the rapid rise of global fast food chains and the homogenizing effects of corporate cuisine, launched Slow Food, an international anti-fast-food resistance movement to preserve traditional and regional cuisine and encourages farming of plants, seeds and livestock characteristic of the local ecosystem. A joyous romp of a film, filled with all manner of delectable scenes of food, drink and song, Slow Food amply demonstrates that adventure is best served in heaping helpings.
