GRAMMATICA ITALIANA PER BAMBINI (BE)
A basic grammar for children, with exercises. It may be used abroad in classes of young learners and in classes with foreign pupils attending school in Italy, as well as in self-study sessions with the help of an adult (the text has answer keys). It's a valid tool for the first approach to grammar in a playful and fun way, along with the stories of the two young protagonists, Giulia and Francesco. The didactic approach is smooth and engaging; it stimulates curiosity by igniting the children's fantasy. Each unit presents a grammar topic in a clear and easy-to-understand way and offers a variety of fun exercises. Softcover, 8"x11x1/2", 142 pages.

VIA DEL CORSO FOR ENGLISH SPEAKERS
Via Del Corso is addressed to adult and young adult readers. It is divided into four levels (A1, A2, B1, B2) and revolves around a story that aims at having students communicate with each from the very first lesson. The story has a strong impact on students: it intrigues and motivates them while it creates excitement and empathy. In the English version of Via Del Corso, the instructions of the exercises, the targets of the unit and the grammar summaries are in English. The book is completed by the Supplementary Grammar and the Italian-English Glossary with the translation of the words and expressions of the Student's book. Softcover, 8-1/2 x 11", 256-page Book, with 2 Audio CD's & DVD.

THE NEW ITALIAN PROJECT-
An Italian Course for English Speakers
The New Italian Project is a fully updated edition of a modern Italian language course for non-native speakers. It is intended for adult and young adult learners. The fact that the previous edition of this textbook is an international bestseller allowed us to collect comments from hundreds of teachers who work in diverse learning environments. Their valuable feedback and our direct experience in the classroom enabled us to evaluate and determine which changes to implement in order to update the book’s content and methodology. At the same time we have respected the philosophy of the previous edition, appreciated by many teachers who “grew up” professionally using the book in their classroom. This 4-level multimedia language and civilization course combines a variety of activities with easy-to-follow grammar tables, modern illustrations and authentic Italian material. Communication and grammar are given equal emphasis throughout. The student book and workbook are in one volume, and come with a DVD and Audio CD. Softcover, 8-1/2”x11”, + INTERACTIVE VERSIONS.

Io e Te (Ammaniti): The introvert and neurotic 14 year old Lorenzo hides for a week in the basement. He barricades himself with cokes, tinned food and horror novels to enjoy his solitude without having to confront himself with the outside world: school and his difficult relations to the other kids. His parents believe that he is on a skiing trip with the class. Suddenly Olivia turns up and violently breaks into his lonely world. She is the one who helps him get back into the harsh realities outside the basement. (166 pages.)

La Moneta di Akragas (Camilleri): The story begins in ancient Sicily when the rich maritime city of Akragas is conquered by Carthaginians and a soldier tosses away a bag of coins before he dies. It continues in the 20th century when the coin is rediscovered and then disappears. (88 pages.)

Io Non Ho Paura (Ammaniti): I’m Not Scared is a crime mystery thriller set during Italy’s “Year of Lead”, a time in the 1970’s riddled with crime and terrorism. It tells the story of a young boy who discovers a terrible crime committed by the entire population of his southern Italian town. (104 pages.)

L’edera (Deledda): "L’edera" is both the story of the decline of a Sardinian family and the description of a woman's sacrifice. Anna is from a declining aristocratic family and very much devoted to her family, the Decherchi, which is at the edge of financial collapse.

(96 pages.)

Seta (Baricco): In 1861 Hervé Joncour was 32 years old, he lived in Lavilledieu, a town in southern France, together with his wife Hélène, and made a living by buying and selling silkworms ... From this quiet and reassuring activity a series of experiences was born that they will see Hervé at the center of an endless journey to distant countries and within a progressive discovery of himself, measuring himself against new people and cultures, with loves and curiosities never before even imagined. (88 pages.)

Sette racconti (Moravia): Seven stories by Moravia, an Italian writer with a worldwide reputation, have been carefully selected for this book. (80 pages.)

ITALIAN I GRANDI CLASSICI READERS

Il Piccolo Principe: Saint-Exupery was a famous writer, but he was an airplane pilot by trade and took part in the war. A few months after the release of The Little Prince, during an offshore mission, his plane was hit by a German fighter and crashed. Nothing more will be known about the writer. The Little Prince is therefore the last book he wrote, as well as the most famous. But what is this book - a fairy tale for children or a novel for adults? Is it a work of fiction or does it hide a deeper message? Maybe all of this, and more. And why did it become so famous and so loved around the world? All that remains is to read it to find out. Paperback, 6”x 8”, 128 pages, includes questions and activities. DIS3709............Book/Free Online Audio, $10.95

Viva Verdi The Most Beautiful Works Told To Children: The introvert and neurotic 14 year old Two hundred years after the birth of Giuseppe Verdi, this book intends to celebrate one of the greatest artists of all time, one of the geniuses that Italy has given to the world. His works, since they were born, move, excite, sometimes indignant and scandalize, but in any case they make you think, rich and poor listeners, educated and ignorant, musical and out of tune, in Italy as in America, in Australia as in Japan. Paperback, 6”x 8”, 208 pages, includes questions and activities. DIS1606..................Book/Audio CD, $14.95

La Divina Commedia: The book tells Dante Alighieri’s The Divine Comedy, from the dark forest in which the poet gets lost at the beginning of Hell, to the vision of God that concludes Heaven. The story of the poem is "framed" by a Prologue and an Epilogue, which narrate Dante's death in Ravenna, in 1321, following the fevers he contracted while crossing the Comacchio Valleys. Paperback, 6”x 8”, 240 pages, includes questions and activities. DIS0685............Book/Free Online Audio, $14.95

Pirandello Novelle Scelte: The volume offers a collection of ten of the author's most famous short stories, chosen on the basis of the criterion of readability for young readers divided according to a thematic principle that unites them. The texts are accompanied notes and lexical in-depth notes. At the end of the volume, a rich Dossier offers information on Pirandello life, his works and his poetics. Paperback, 6”x 8”, 208 pages, includes questions and activities. DIS8919............Book/Free Online Audio, $12.95

Il Diario Segreto di Leonardo: “Leonardo's secret diary” traces the history of the great genius of the renaissance through the adventures of Andrea and Michelle. Their friendship develops as they follow the traces left by Leonardo da Vinci. Milan, with the Last Supper and the Ambroiana Library, Paris, with the Louvre Museum, up to bedroom floor, find the secret diary written by Leonardo, addressed to Michelangelo Buonarroti. When dawn comes and the two boys sneak out of the manor, will they still be just friends? Paperback, 6”x 8”, 144 pages, includes questions and activities. DIS3716............Book/Free Online Audio, $14.95

Il Giornalino di Gian Burrasca: If the strength of the classics consists in their stainless resistance to the wear and tear of time, Il Giornalino by Gian Burrasca rightfully belongs to the evergreen family. It is enough to scroll through the first lines of this diary written by an early twentieth century teenager to be enveloped by the irresistible exhilarating lightness with which the protagonist looks at the world of adults, putting their weaknesses under a merciless magnifying glass. Vamba has fun with his creation, laughs at the contradictions and grotesque attitudes of the protagonists and the extras that follow one another in the pages of the diary. Paperback, 6”x 8”, 272 pages, includes questions and activities. DIS3761............Book/Free Online Audio, $14.95

Mi Piace: Mi Piace is a novel featuring youngsters of Generation Z… the ones obsessed with Facebook, constantly on their cellphones, who live in a virtual world. It deals with their hopes, dreams and friendships. Paperback, 6”x 8”, 160 pages, includes questions and activities. DIS7165............Book/Free Online Audio, $12.95

I Ragazzi Della Via Pal: The Paul Street Boys is a novel that speaks of the childhood of a group of friends. They are trying to protect their playground from another group that wants to get rid of them. Paperback, 6”x 8”, 208 pages, includes questions and activities. DIS8926............Book/Free Online Audio, $14.95
